

Cultivating talent for a bright future

Did you know that approximately 36% of Groton residents over age 25 have earned at least a college degree, 20% have a Bachelor's degree and 16% have an advanced graduate or professional degree?

Groton offers outstanding educational opportunities for all ages... At our top-ranked public schools, dedicated teachers, involved parents and forward leaning administrators along with modern facilities form the foundation of our approach to the critical task of educating your children.

www.exploremoregroton.com

Nearby Educational Opportunities...

Within a twenty-mile radius of Groton, there are nine colleges, universities or technical institutes providing higher education, including the Avery Point Campus of UCONN, Connecticut College, The United States Coast Guard Academy, and Mitchell College.

Marine Science Magnet High School is a 9-12 public magnet school established in September 2011. In 2013, '14, & '16, MSMHS was awarded the State Department of Education School of Distinction Award for the Highest Overall Performance. MSMHS ranks at the top in the state among all public high schools on both state standardized tests.

Ella T. Grasso Technical High School has an enrollment of 500 students. A new school facility with a capacity of 800 students is under construction and expected to open in the fall of 2019. It will feature the combination of the hospitality and culinary programs - with a restaurant - and a new welding program, to help meet the needs of Electric Boat and other area manufacturers.

